RULES OF PROCEDURE SIMULATION

GENERAL RULES

RULE 1: SCOPE

The rules included in this guide are applicable to all committees. If a situation arises that has not been addressed by the Rules of Procedure, the Committee Chair will be the final authority on what procedure to follow.

RULE 2: LANGUAGE

English will be the official and working language of the committees. French will be the working language of UNESCO.

RULE 3: DELEGATIONS

Each member state will be represented by two delegates in the Security Council, and one delegate in the other committees. Each member state will account for one vote in each committee.

RULE 4: CREDENTIALS

The credentials of all delegations have been accepted upon registration. Actions relating to the modification of rights, privileges, or credentials of any member may not be initiated without the written consent of the Secretary-General.

Any representative to whose admission a member objects will provisionally be seated with the same rights as other representatives, pending a decision from the Secretary-General.

RULE 5: PARTICIPATION OF NONMEMBERS

Representatives of Accredited Observers will have the same rights as those of full members, except that they may not sign or vote on draft resolutions or amendments. A representative that is not a member of the United Nations or an Accredited Observer may address a committee only with the prior approval of the Dais.

RULE 6: STATEMENTS BY THE SECRETARIAT

The Secretary-General or a designated member of the Secretariat may at any time make either written or oral statements to the committee.

RULE 7: GENERAL POWERS OF THE COMMITTEE STAFF

The Committee Dais (i.e the Chairs and the Rapporteur) will declare the opening and closing of each meeting and may propose the adoption of any procedural motion to which there is no significant objection. The Committee Chair, subject to these rules, is sovereign of the proceedings at any meeting.

The Committee Chair will also direct discussions, accord the right to speak, pose questions, announce decisions, rule on points of order, and ensure and enforce the observance of these rules.

The Committee Chair may temporarily transfer his or her duties to another member of the Committee staff upon notification to the Under Secretary-General. Committee staff members may also advise delegations on the possible course of debate. In the exercise of these functions, the Committee staff will be at all times subject to these rules and responsible to the Secretary-General.

RULE 8: QUORUM

The Committee Chair may declare a committee open and permit debate to proceed when at least one quarter of the members of the Committee (as declared at the beginning of the first session) is present. A member of the Committee is a representative who is officially registered within the Conference.

The presence of a majority of the members will be required for the vote on any substantive motion. A quorum will be assumed to be present unless specifically challenged and shown to be absent. A roll call is never required to determine the presence of a quorum.

RULE 9: COURTESY

Delegates will show courtesy and respect to the Committee staff and to other delegates. The Committee staff will show courtesy and respect to the delegates.

The Committee Chair will immediately call to order any delegate who fails to comply with this rule.

RULE 10: ELECTRONIC AIDS

During Committee sessions, rules regarding the use of electronic equipment will be at the discretion of the Chair.

RULE 11: ABSENCES

If a delegate is absent during roll call, they are required to send a note to the Dais upon his or her arrival in order to inform them of his or her presence.

DEBATE

RULE 12: AGENDA

- At PIMUN 2022, Simulation Committees will have only one topic on their agenda. Therefore, each committee's topic will be automatically adopted without debate.
- In the event of a simulated international crisis or emergency, the Secretary-General, the Under-Secretary-General or their representative may call upon a committee to table debate on the current topic area so that the more urgent matter may be attended to immediately. After a draft resolution has been passed on the crisis topic, the committee will return to debate on the tabled topic.
- If a draft resolution on the crisis topic fails, the committee may return to debate on the tabled topic area only at the discretion of the Secretary-General, the Under-Secretary-General or their representative.

RULE 13: DEBATE

Opening Statements:

At the beginning of the debate on each topic, time will be allotted to each Delegate present to deliver an opening statement on the position of their country of representation. The time allotted is at the discretion of the Chairs and shall be communicated to the Delegates at the beginning of the first Committee Session. The order of speakers must follow the alphabetical order.

General Speakers' List:

Following the completion of the opening statements, the Chairs will allocate the time for the General Speakers' List and will call for the first delegates wishing to be added. Those that have not been added, shall request inclusion in the following ways:

- Raising their placard
- Sending a private message through the default platform

Delegates shall be added in principle to the speaker's list in chronological order. The final order will remain at the discretion of the Chairs taking into consideration equity and good functioning of the Committee. Debate automatically closes when the General Speakers' List is exhausted.

A delegate who has been granted the right to speak and has not exhausted their allotted speaking time shall yield their remaining time in one of the ways discussed under RULE 25.

RULE 14: UNMODERATED CAUCUS

A motion for an Unmoderated Caucus is in order at any time when the floor is open, prior to closure of debate. The delegate making the motion must briefly explain its purpose and specify a time limit for the caucus, not to exceed thirty minutes. The motion will immediately be put to a vote. A majority of members are required to proceed to an unmoderated caucus. The Chair may rule the motion dilatory.

RULE 15: CONSULTATION OF THE WHOLE

Delegates may motion for a Consultation of the Whole, where Parliamentary Procedure is suspended and informal discussion is carried out in the committee room. Speaking times and delegates taking the floor are determined on an informal, ad-hoc basis at the discretion of the delegates, and where necessary, the Chair.

A topic and time limit must be specified by the delegate making the motion. This motion will pass given a simple majority. During the Consultation of the Whole, delegates not taking the floor are required to remain respectful of fellow delegates. The motion may be ruled dilatory or brought to an end at the discretion of the Chair.

RULE 16: MODERATED CAUCUS

The purpose of the Moderated Caucus is to facilitate substantive debate at critical junctures in the discussion. In a Moderated Caucus, the Chair will temporarily depart from the Speakers List and call on delegates to speak at his/her discretion.

A motion for a Moderated Caucus is in order at any time when the floor is open, prior to the closure of debate. The delegate making the motion must briefly explain its purpose and specify a time limit for the caucus, not to exceed twenty minutes, and a time limit for the individual speeches.

The Chair may rule a proposed motion dilatory. Once raised, the motion will be voted on, with a majority of members required for passage.

Motions will be ranked in descending order of duration, the most disruptive being voted on first. Motions of identical durations will be voted on in the same order that they were recognized. No motions are in order during a Moderated Caucus.

The Chair may bring the delegate's time to an end if she/he is not addressing the topic of the Moderated Caucus. If no delegate wishes to speak during a Moderated Caucus, it shall immediately end. Delegates are not permitted to yield remaining time during Moderated Caucuses.

RULE 17: CLOSURE OF DEBATE

When the floor is open, a delegate may move to close debate on the substantive or procedural matter under discussion. Delegates may move to close debate on the general topic, debate on the agenda, or debate on an amendment. The Chair may rule such a motion dilatory.

When the closure of debate is moved, the Director may recognize up to two speakers against the motion and two speakers in favour. If there are no speakers against, the motion automatically passes. No speaker in favour of the motion will be recognised. Closure of debate requires the support of two-thirds of the members present.

If the Committee is in favour of closure, the Director will declare the closure of the debate, and move the Committee immediately to voting procedure.

RULE 18: SUSPENSION OR ADJOURNMENT OF THE MEETING

Whenever the floor is open, a delegate may move for the suspension of the meeting, to suspend all Committee functions until the next meeting, or for the adjournment of the meeting, to suspend all Committee functions for the duration of the Conference. The Chair may rule such motions dilatory.

When in order, such motions will not be debatable but will be immediately put to a vote, barring any motions taking precedence, and will require a majority to pass. A motion to adjourn will be out of order prior to the lapse of three quarters of the time allotted for the last meeting of the Committee.

RULE 19: POSTPONEMENT AND RESUMPTION OF DEBATE

Whenever the floor is open, a delegate may move for the postponement of debate on a draft resolution, amendment, or topic currently on the floor. The motion, otherwise known as ‘tabling’, will require a two-thirds vote to pass and will be debatable to the extent of one speaker in favour and one opposed. No debate or action will be allowed on any draft resolution, amendment, or topic on which debate has been postponed.

A motion to resume debate on an amendment, draft resolution, or topic on which debate has been postponed will require a majority to pass and will be debatable to the extent of one speaker in favour and one opposed.

If there is no speaker against, the motion automatically passes. Resumption of debate will cancel the effects of postponement of debate.

RULE 20: RECONSIDERATION

A motion to reconsider is in order when a draft resolution or amendment has been adopted or rejected and must be made by a member who voted with the majority on the proposal.

The Chair will recognise two speakers opposing the motion after which the motion will be immediately put to a vote. A two-thirds majority of the members present is required for reconsideration. If the motion passes, the committee will immediately vote again on the draft resolution or amendment being reconsidered.

RULE 21: APPEAL TO THE CHAIR

Any delegate wishing to express concern over a procedural decision of the Dais may propose an appeal to the chair. This will not be in order for substantive matters. Once the appeal to the Chair is proposed, a second from another delegate is required for the appeal to be recognised. Once recognised the delegate who raised the appeal will have thirty seconds to explain the reasons for this appeal.

If the delegate finds the behaviour of a Chair problematic but fails to propose an appeal to the chair, the Simulation team (composed of the Under Secretary General Simulation and the Assistants to the Secretary General) will take any concerns or complaints the delegates may have against the Dais. However, communication between the Dais and the delegates should be prioritized in every committee.

RULE 23: SPEECHES

No delegate may address a session without having previously obtained the permission of the Chair. The Chair may call a speaker to order if his/her remarks are not relevant to the subject under discussion, or are offensive to committee members or staff.

RULE 24: TIME LIMIT ON SPEECHES

The chair may limit the time allotted to each speaker. The minimum time limit will be thirty (30) seconds. When a delegate exceeds his/her allotted time, the Chair may call the speaker to order without delay.

RULE 25: YIELDS

A delegate granted the right to speak on a substantive issue may yield in one of three ways at the conclusion of his/her speech: to another delegate, to questions, or to the Chair. Please note that only one yield is allowed. A delegate must declare any yield at the conclusion of his or her speech.

- Yield to another delegate: the delegate's remaining time will be offered to the indicated delegate. If the delegate accepts the yield, the Chair shall recognize the delegate for the remaining time.
- Yield to Points of Information: delegates wishing to pose a Point of Information will be selected by the Chair and limited to one question each. Follow-up questions will be allowed only at the discretion of the Chair. The Chair will have the right to call to order any delegate whose question is, in the opinion of the Director, rhetorical and leading and not designed to elicit information. Only the speaker's answers to questions will be deducted from the speaker's remaining time.
- Yield to the Dais: Such a yield should be made if the delegate does not wish his/her remaining time to be open to Points of Information. The Chair will then move to the next speaker.

RULE 26: RIGHT OF REPLY

A delegate whose personal or national integrity has been impugned by another delegate may submit a Right of Reply to the committee staff. The Chair will grant the Right of Reply at his or her discretion and may request a justification for why the delegate felt insulted. Once the right of reply is granted, the author of the offensive remarks will be presented with the opportunity to publicly apologize to the delegate. If he/she refuses, the delegate whose personal or national integrity has been impugned will be able to publicly reply to the offensive remarks. The speaking time will then be at the discretion of the chair.

The granting of a Right of Reply will not be subject to an Appeal to the Chair (Rule 21).

POINTS

RULE 27: POINTS OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Whenever a delegate experiences personal discomfort which impairs his or her ability to participate in the proceedings, he or she may raise a Point of Personal Privilege to request that the discomfort be corrected.

While a Point of Personal Privilege in extreme cases may interrupt a speaker, delegates should use this power with the utmost discretion.

RULE 28: POINTS OF ORDER

During the discussion of any matter, a delegate may rise to a Point of Order to indicate an instance of improper parliamentary procedure. The Point of Order will be immediately decided by the Chair in accordance with these rules of procedure.

The Chair may rule whether those points are in order. A representative rising to a Point of Order may not speak on the substance of the matter under discussion. A Point of Order may only interrupt a speaker if the speech is not following proper parliamentary procedure.

RULE 29: POINTS OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

When the floor is open, a delegate may rise to a Point of Parliamentary Inquiry to ask the Chair a question regarding the rules of procedure. A Point of Parliamentary Inquiry may never interrupt a speaker. Delegates with substantive questions should not rise to this Point but should rather approach the Dais during caucus or send a note to the Dais.

RULE 30: POINTS OF INFORMATION

During the time yielded by a delegate to Points of Information, fellow delegates raise Points of Information by posing short, concise, and clear questions to the delegate addressing the content of the speech. The Dais may interrupt or stop a delegate's question if it is not addressing the topic or conducive to a coherent exchange of information.

THE PATH TO DRAFT A RESOLUTION

RULE 31: WORKING PAPERS

Delegates may propose working papers for committee consideration. Working papers are intended to aid the Committee in its discussion and formulation of draft resolutions and need not be written in draft resolution format. Working papers are not official documents but do require the signature of the Chair to be copied and distributed.

Once distributed, delegates may begin to refer to that working paper by its designated number, but otherwise, debate proceeds normally on the topic. No motion or vote is required to introduce a working paper.

RULE 32: DRAFT RESOLUTIONS

A draft resolution may be introduced when it receives the approval of the Chair and is signed by 20 members in the General Assembly, 10 members in the Economic and Social Council and Regional Bodies, or 5 members in Security Council Simulations.

Signing a draft resolution need not indicate support of the draft resolution, and the signatory has no further obligations. Signing a draft resolution only indicates a desire for the draft resolution to be discussed in committee.

A minimum of 3 official sponsors and 3 signatories are required in order to introduce any draft resolution. These numbers might be subject to change according to the Chairs' discretion. A Draft resolution requires a simple majority of members voting pass. After a draft resolution is passed, the voting procedure for this draft resolution will end, however, the committee might enter into a voting procedure for another draft resolution.

RULE 33: INTRODUCTION OF DRAFT RESOLUTIONS

Once a draft resolution has been approved as stipulated above and has been copied and distributed, a delegate may motion to introduce the draft resolution.

The Chair, time permitting, shall read the operative clauses of the draft resolution. A procedural vote is then taken to determine whether the draft resolution shall be introduced. Should the motion receive the simple majority required to pass, the draft resolution will be considered introduced and on the floor.

The Chair, at his or her discretion, may decide to call the sponsors of the document and let them entertain any points for clarification on the draft resolution.

More than one draft resolution may be on the floor at any one time. A draft resolution will remain on the floor until the debate on that specific draft resolution is postponed, tabled or a draft resolution on that Topic Area has been passed.

Debate on draft resolutions proceeds according to the general Speakers List for that topic area and delegates may then refer to the draft resolution by its designated number. No delegate may refer to a draft resolution until it is formally introduced.

RULE 34: AMENDMENTS

Delegates may amend any draft resolution that has been introduced by adding to, deleting from or revising parts of the amendment. Only one amendment may be introduced at any given time.

For substantive voting, each country will have one vote. Each vote may be a 'Yes,' 'No,' or 'Abstain.' Members who abstain from voting are considered as not voting. All matters will be voted upon using placards by default, except if a motion for a roll call vote is accepted.

An amendment must have the approval of the Chair and the signatures of 12 members in the General Assembly, 5 members in the Economic Social Council and the Regional Bodies, or 3 members in Security Council simulations (at the discretion of the chairs). Amendments to amendments are out of order. There are no official sponsors of amendments or friendly amendments. Preambulatory phrases may not be amended. The final vote on the amendment is substantive; however, Observer Nations will not be able to vote on amendments.

- A motion to introduce an approved amendment may be introduced when the floor is open. If the motion receives the simple majority required to pass, the Chair will read the amendment out loud, time permitting. General Debate will be suspended, and a Speakers List will be established for and against the amendment.

- A motion to close debate will be in order after the Committee has heard from two speakers for the amendment and from two speakers against or from all the speakers on one side and at least two on the other side.

- Following the normal procedure of Rule 14, the Chair will recognize two speakers against the motion to close debate, and a vote of two-thirds is required for closure

- When debate is closed on the amendment, the Committee will move to an immediate vote: Amendments require a simple majority to pass. Following the vote, the debate will resume according to the General Speakers List.

A simple majority requires 'Yes' voted from more than half of the members voting. Once any resolution has been passed, the voting procedure is closed. In Security Council Simulations, the five permanent members have the power to veto any substantive vote.

RULE 37: REORDERING DRAFT RESOLUTIONS

A Motion to Reorder Draft resolutions will only be in order immediately after entering the voting procedure, and before voting has started on any draft resolutions. If the motion receives the simple majority required to pass the Chair will take all motions to reorder draft resolutions and then vote on them in the order in which they are proposed.

Voting will continue until either a motion passes, receiving a simple majority, or all of the motions fail, in which case the committee will move into voting procedure, voting on the draft resolutions in their original order. Only one motion to reorder draft resolutions is in order in each round of voting procedures.

VOTING

RULE 35: PROCEDURAL VOTING

All voting is considered procedural with the exception of voting on draft resolutions and amendments. Delegates must vote on all procedural motions, and no abstentions are allowed. A motion that requires a simple majority needs more than half of the committee members to vote in favour. A motion that requires two-thirds to pass needs exactly twice as many votes in favour as those against to pass.

RULE 36: SUBSTANTIVE VOTING

The only substantive voting will be voting on draft resolutions and amendments. All other votes will be considered as procedural votes. After debate has been closed on the general topic area, the committee will move into substantive voting procedures and the chambers are sealed. At that point, only the following points and motions will be entertained: Division of the Question, Reordering Draft Resolutions, Motion for a Roll Call Vote, Point of Personal Privilege, Point of Parliamentary Inquiry and Point of Order. If there are no such motions, the committee will vote on all draft resolutions.

The final document will be put to a substantive vote as a whole, requiring a simple majority to pass.

RULE 39: ROLL CALL VOTING

After debate is closed on any draft resolution, any delegate may request a roll call vote. Such a motion may be made from the floor following closure of debate on an amendment or topic. A motion for a roll call vote is in order only for substantive votes.

- In a roll call vote, the Chair will call countries in alphabetical order starting with a selected member.
- In the first sequence, delegates may vote “Yes,” “No,” “Abstain,” or “Pass.” Those having voted “Pass” in the first sequence may only vote “Yes” or “No” in further sequences. A delegate may request the right to explain his or her vote only when the delegate is voting against the policy of his or her country; such a vote is termed ‘with Rights.’ The delegate may only explain a vote in favour or against, not an abstention.
- All delegates who had requested the right of explanation will be granted time to explain their votes. The speaking time will be set at the discretion of the Chair, not to exceed thirty seconds.
- The Chair will then announce the outcome of the vote.

RULE 38: DIVISION OF THE QUESTION

After debate on any topic has been closed, a delegate may move that operative parts of a draft resolution be voted on separately. Preambulatory clauses and sub-operative clauses may not be removed by the division of the question.

- The motion can be debated to the extent of at most two speakers for and two against, to be followed by an immediate procedural vote on that motion.
- If the motion receives the simple majority required to pass, the Chair will take motions regarding the division of the question and prioritize them from most to least disruptive.

- The committee will then vote on the motions in the order set by the Chair. If no division passes, the resolution remains intact. Once a division, requiring a simple majority, has been passed, the resolution will be divided accordingly, and a separate procedural vote will be taken on each divided part to determine whether or not it is included in the final draft. If all of the operative parts of the substantive proposal are rejected, the draft resolution will be considered to have been rejected as a whole.
- Parts of the draft resolution that are subsequently passed will be recombined into a final document.

RULE 39: VOTING BY ACCLAMATION

Before the beginning the vote on a particular motion, draft resolution or amendment, the Committee Chair has the right to ask his or her members if there are any objections to a vote by acclamation. In addition, if no speakers against the motion to close debate are recognized, the Chair will propose a vote by acclamation, subject to objections from the delegates. If the committee members have no objections, then the motion will automatically be adopted without the committee going into voting procedure. A single objection to voting by acclamation will mean that the committee will go into normal voting procedure.

PRECEDENCE OF MOTIONS

Motions and Points will be considered in the following order of preference: Point of Personal Privilege (Rule 28), Point of Order (Rule 29), Point of Parliamentary Inquiry (Rule 30), Adjournment of the Meeting (Rule 18), Suspension of the Meeting (Rule 18), Unmoderated Caucusing (Rule 14), Consultation of the Whole (Rule 15), Moderated Caucusing (Rule 16), Introduction of Draft Resolution (Rule 33), Introduction of an Amendment (Rule 34), Postponement of Debate (Rule 19), Resumption of Debate (Rule 19), Closure of Debate (Rule 17).

At the start of the voting procedure, the following points and motions are in order, in the following order of precedence: 1. Point of Personal Privilege (Rule 28), 2. Point of Order (Rule 29), 3. Point of Parliamentary Inquiry (Rule 30), 4. Reordering Draft Resolutions (Rule 37), 5. Division of the Question (Rule 38), 6. Motion for a Roll Call Vote (Rule 39)

SPECIAL RULES:

POINT OF ENTERTAINMENT¹

A Point of Entertainment may be used when the delegates feel particularly lethargic and there is a need to lift the mood of the committee. Delegates are invited to raise a point of entertainment to perhaps play a funny song, video or showcase a talent that they have outside MUN. Examples have included making the Chairs sing in another language, catwalk, and solving a Rubik's cube. This point may not interrupt another speaker.

INVITATION OF GUEST SPEAKERS :

Delegates of the Simulation committees (DISEC, UNESCO, ECOSOC, UNSC and HRC) can request to call on specific guests, depending on their committee and the topic addressed. Delegates would need to raise this motion by sending a note to the Dais, stating the specific guest/expert/ambassador and briefly explain the purpose. It is the Chairs' discretion on whether to make the invitation. The Chairs will also set the time limit for the intervention and the eventual interview.

Rules specific to the Security Council (UNSC):

DEBATING IN DOUBLE DELEGATIONS

When attending the committee in double delegations, half of the delegates (one per member state) will have the possibility to exit the committee room and meet in the Council's backroom in order to debate in a more informal setting (similar to an unmoderated caucus), under the supervision of one of their Chairs. However, the opening times of the backroom will be at the discretion of the Chairs, and the delegates must return to the committee room as soon as they are called to do so.

VOTING IN UNSC

In the UNSC, procedural votes pass with a simple majority and substantive votes require a 9/15 majority to pass. During substantive votes, the Permanent Five (P5) Members reserve the right to veto. This is enacted by a 'No' vote, in the event of which the Draft Resolution automatically fails. If a P5 member votes 'Abstain', this is not a negative vote.

P5 CAUCUS

A member of the P5 is able to raise this motion. They would state a time for the duration of this caucus. In doing so, the P5 would leave to discuss matters in a separate room, under the supervision of one of the committee Chairs. It is the Chair's discretion to entertain to motion or not, this decision is final and not subject to appeal. Only P5 members can vote upon this motion, and it needs 3 votes in favour to be passed.

¹ This point has been borrowed from the RoPs of HamMUN 2019, where it was added by Helena Granik, then member of the Academics Staff.
